

Money, Money, Money

by Steve Higginbotham

Have you ever noticed how some televangelist are always making urgent pleas, asking for money to keep their ministry afloat? They often promise that if you "plant a seed of faith" (translated: give them money) you will receive one hundred fold in return. And to prove their point, they will provide testimonials of people who gave and how God miraculously blessed them a hundred fold.

However, I have a question. If they really believe that for every dollar you give, you will receive one hundred in return, then instead of asking us to support them to keep their ministry afloat, why don't they give to us and receive a hundredfold for themselves?

The apostle Paul once warned about men of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain. From such, withdraw yourself (1 Timothy 6:5).

A scam? You decide.
