

mercEmail

"He delights in mercy" (Micah 7:18)

Duck Church by Steve Higginbotham

Hear the following parable. One Sunday morning, all the ducks got up, brushed their feathers, and waddled to church. After waddling down the church aisle and into their pews, they squatted. Shortly thereafter, the duck minister waddled in and took his place behind the pulpit. He opened his duck Bible to the place where it spoke of God's great gift to ducks -- "their wings." "With wings," said the duck preacher, "you ducks can fly! You can mount like eagles and soar into the heavens. You can escape the confinement of pens and fences. You must give thanks to God for so great a gift as wings." To this, all the ducks in the church agreed and shouted, "Amen!" and then they all got up from their pews and...waddled home.

Question: Are you using all the talents God has given you? Give it some thought.